2022 Propane Pricing Program

Pricing Philosophy

Bryan's Fuel undertakes to provide customers with the best value and the highest level of efficiency, safety and customer service in the industry. Bryan's Fuel is committed to a philosophy of openness and providing its customers with the right facts to make informed decisions with regard to storage containers, propane supply, propane equipment and services.

Pricing is based on tank size and quantity used. The table below shows pricing in relation to the 500 US Gal. base price. For exact pricing obtain the base price from either our website (www.bryansfuel.on.ca) or from our staff.

Customer Relationship

Bryan's Fuel professionals will individually assess each customer's needs and specifications prior to confirming the personalized customer agreement. Bryan's Fuel agrees to supply propane at the Residential Market Price at the time of each delivery. As a distributor, Bryan's Fuel is committed to supplying propane competitively and to adjusting the customer's price upwards or downwards coincident and exactly in step with each fluctuation in Bryan's Fuel wholesale cost. Bryan's Fuel reserves the right to choose the size and number of storage containers used at the customer's premises. This will ensure efficient delivery and supply availability of propane to the customer. Bryan's Fuel, as a low cost, high quality supplier, requires that customers pay all invoices promptly, within net 20 days of invoice date. This Customer Agreement shall remain in force until either party gives the other 30 days notice (or longer if mutually agreed to) to terminate. Bryan's Fuel will be the customer's exclusive supplier while the agreement is in force.
